

Global Mentor in Doctoral Education Award

The International Network of Doctoral Education in Nursing (INDEN) presents the Global Mentor in Doctoral Education Award to recognize an individual for their excellence in mentoring international doctoral students. International in this context, means students not from the the country where the mentor resides. The Award will be presented at the Biennial INDEN conference and the recipient will receive a complementary INDEN Biennial Conference registration.

Eligibility Criteria

- Current INDEN membership – become a member or renew your membership at <http://indenglobal.org/membership/>
- Attendance at the 2019 INDEN Biennial Conference
- Demonstrates qualities of excellence in mentoring international doctoral nursing students such as, but not limited to: facilitates student learning and scholarship (i.e., publications, grants, development as a faculty member), provides guidance and encouragement, helps to set and meet professional goals
- Serves as a role model in doctoral education in nursing and research
- Currently a mentor for doctoral nursing students or has been within the past calendar year

Submission requirements

The application must include:

- A biography/narrative, not to exceed 2 double spaced pages in length, that explains how the candidate demonstrates the eligibility criteria
- Candidate's most recent CV or Resume
- A letter of nomination from a former or current international PhD student
- Letters of nomination should include concrete examples and information detailing the impact of the nominee's mentorship efforts

Application Deadline and Review:

Applications must be submitted to MENTORSHIP AWARD SUBMISSION by June 1st 2019 USA EST. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.

Award presentation and promotion

If selected the recipient must be present at the 2019 Biennial Conference to receive the award and will have a few minutes to give a thank you speech during the awards ceremony. The 2019 Biennial Conference registration fee will be waived for the recipient.

The recipient will also be invited to write an editorial on mentorship for INDEN's website.